

The Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria: A Decade of Progress

230 million

insecticide-treated nets distributed for the prevention of malaria since 2002

48%

percentage of all people on AIDS treatment who depend on the Global Fund to receive their medication

4.1 million

TB deaths prevented over the last decade

6.6 million people in low and middle-income countries worldwide that are on AIDS treatment, up from 200,000 a decade ago

GF

25%

percentage that Malaria deaths have dropped in the last decade

4,000

lives saved every day by Global Fund programs

1.3 million

pregnant women with HIV who received anti-retroviral prophylaxis through prevention of mother-to-child transmission programs supported by the Fund, 2002-2010

8.2 million

cases of Tuberculosis treated since 2002